

YOUNG at ART Workshops – March 2010

Workshops take place at the Harlow Gallery at 160 Water Street in downtown Hallowell. For more information, please call 622-3813.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6

“Super Heroes or Super Villains”

Instructor: Zoe Fisk

Sat, 3/6 ■ 10 am to noon

Ages 8 -13 ■ Cost $20

Create the superhero of your wildest dreams! Students can explore a cause or ability that is important to them, or simply create the next Mr. Dog Man or Captain Planet. We will work together to create either a superhero or super villain to bring that vision to life! Students will leave with a portrait of their own superhero to decorate their walls.

“Folk Art of Scrimshaw”

Instructor: Maxine Marquis

Sat, 3/6 ■ 1 to 3 pm

Ages 12 and up ■ Cost $15

Did you know that sailors and whalers once created works of art out of whalebone? Come and learn what scrimshaw is and create your own piece of simulated scrimshaw using plaster and ink.

SUNDAY, MARCH 7

“Hand Building Clay Techniques”

Instructor: Malley Webber

Sun, 3/7 ■ Noon to 1 pm

Ages 4 -7 ■ Cost $15

Make your favorite creatures, sculptures, buildings etc. Prepare to get messy and have fun with Malley Weber of Hallowell Clay Works. The pieces will then be fired and in a couple weeks, kids will have their own unique pieces.

“Clay on the Wheel!”

Instructor: Malley Webber

Sun, 3/7 ■ 2 to 3:30 pm

Ages 8-12 ■ Cost $20

Learn the basics of throwing on a real potter's wheel. Make bowls, mugs, vases. We will make a mess and you get to help clean up! Bring apron, smock, and a smile. Young artists will meet the instructor at the Harlow Gallery and walk to Hallowell Clay Works just down the street. Note: Children taking this class should arrive 5 min early!

A second session has been added as this class is full, on Sunday, March 14th from 1-2:30

SATURDAY, MARCH 13

“Create Your Own Kaleidoscope!”

Instructor: Linda Nichols Phillips

Sat, 3/13 ■ 10 to noon

Ages 10 to 14 ■ Cost $20

Did you ever wonder how kaleidoscopes work and why the image viewed within is always symmetrical? Discover the magic of kaleidoscopes from the inside out with art instructor Linda Nichols Phillips. Students will learn about the history of this popular "parlor toy" and will construct their very own kaleidoscopes using a variety of materials to create beautiful ever-changing images to share with family and friends! Using decorative papers and techniques to design the exterior, students will turn their kaleidoscopes into unique and original pieces of art.

“Taters for Tots”

Instructor: Leon Hastings

Sat, 3/13 ■ 1 to 2:00 pm

Ages 4 to 6 ■ Cost $15

Children enjoy designing their own unique potato person in this workshop! Using a real spud, young pupils will choose from a variety of pre-made eyes, noses, teeth, eyebrows, moustaches, hats, and more, courtesy of the art teacher! Once the characters are completed, a photo will be taken to make the art project last a lifetime!! Students may bring along any items they'd like to add to their potato person.

SUNDAY, MARCH 14

“Drip...Splatter...Drizzle”

Instructor: Liz Johnson

Sun, 3/14 ■ 1 to 3:00 pm

Ages 9 - 13 ■ Cost $20

Have you ever wanted to try splatter painting but were told "NO! That's too messy!" Come to Harlow Gallery to experience this exciting painting technique. You will create an original work of art to take home as well as learn about the history of splatter painting by a variety of artists including Jackson Pollock, Asian elephants and ancient calligraphers. Wear old shoes and pants and prepare to get messy!

Young at Art workshops are being sponsored this year by Longfellow's Greenhouses in Manchester and by Dr. Zee, your friendly neighborhood orthodontist in Augusta

MARCH 2010 • YOUNG AT ART WORKSHOP SERIES

SATURDAY, MARCH 20

“Paste Paper and Animals!”

Instructor: Jennifer Paisley

Sat, 3/20 ■ 10 am to 11:30

Ages 8 to 11 ■ Cost $15

Come learn how to make the textured paper called 'paste paper' and then use the many different colors to make works of art similar to illustrator/author Eric Carle. Use your imagination and creativity with the different textures, as well as in your creations!

“Copper Enameling”

Instructor: Jennifer Paisley

Sat, 3/20 ■ 1:00 to 3:30 pm

Ages 12 and up ■ Cost $20

Come create artwork on pieces of copper. We will be melting powdered glass on copper in a 1,500 degree kiln! You can make necklace pendants, key chains, charms, pins etc.

SUNDAY, MARCH 21

“Beautiful Birds and Fabulous Fish!”

Instructor: Sandra Dunn

Sun, 3/21 ■ 1 to 2:00 am

Ages 5-8 ■ Cost $15

A lesson in colors. Children use watercolor paint and mixed media to create unique works of art focused around beautiful birds and fabulous fish. Sandra Dunn is a 20 year veteran in children's art education as well as a professional artist.

SATURDAY, MARCH 27

“Mask Making with Plaster Craft”

Instructor: Jean Parkin-Clunie

Sat, 3/27 ■ 10 to Noon

Ages 13 and up ■ Cost $20

Students will explore the art of mask making by creating a mask from their own face. We will use instant mold plaster bandages to make a cast and will paint embellish, collage, (or whatever!) To design the mask to personify the student artist.

“Design Your Own T-shirt”

Instructor: Jenny Morrison

Sat, 3/27 ■ 1 to 3 pm

Ages 12-18 ■ Cost $20

This popular workshop is back for the 5th year! Create your own T-shirt. Using the stencil method of screen print-making, you'll design and cut your own stencils, then print the images on cotton T-shirts with heat-treated washable inks. T-shirts provided.

SUNDAY, MARCH 28

“Paper Parade”

Instructor: Melissa Hunnibell

Sun, 3/28 ■ 11 to noon

Ages 5 to 7 ■ Cost $15

A picture book is like a paper parade - every page a new show to see. We will draw, paint, stamp, cut, and glue as we play with colors and shapes. Everyone will leave with their own handmade art book.
